

Possible thematic approaches

These can provide 'umbrellas' under which specific topics may be placed

Adaptation	Behaviour	Beliefs and values
Cause and effect	Change	Changing lifestyles
Citizenship	Communication	Conflict and cooperation
Conservation	Consumption	Creativity
Culture	Customs and rituals	Cycles
Development	Distribution	Diversity
Ecological sustainability	Energy	Environment
Feelings and emotions	Gender equity	Human rights
Imagining and constructing the future	Indigenous peoples	Individual potential
Individuals and groups	Institutions	Interaction
Interdependence	Invention and design	Justice, rights and responsibilities
Life and living	Living and non-living	Location
Mobility	Needs and wants	Organisation
Patterns	Perception	Personal safety
Place and space	Power and control	Production
Relationships	Resources	Revolution
Rites of passage	Ritual	Roles, rules and laws
Similarities and differences	Social justice	Society and socialisation
Spirituality	Supply and demand	Survival
Systems	The global society	The physical world
Thinking Critically	Time	Tradition
Transitions	Wellbeing	Work and leisure

From:

<http://k6.boardofstudies.nsw.edu.au/linkages/IntegratedUnits/BeaumontRd/beaumontrd.html>